

SSNCI

The Society for the Study of Nineteenth-Century Ireland

2026 Annual Conference

For up-to-date conference information see the SSNCI website <https://ssnci.org/annual-conference-2026/>

Directions

Maynooth is located in north Co Kildare, 24km west of Dublin city centre on the M4.

The conference will be held in Rehehan Hall and adjacent rooms on the South Campus of Maynooth University which is the older campus.

Attendees can access the conference venue through the St Patrick's House (main entrance) of the building (see image below). After proceeding through the main entrance take a left and follow the corridor to the conference venue.

A campus map is available at this link:

<https://www.maynoothuniversity.ie/sites/default/files/assets/document/map%2025.pdf>

Renehan Hall is marked with number 14. Enter through the building marked 18.

The conference dinner will take place in Donatello's Restaurant, Main Street, Maynooth approximately 10 minutes' walk from the conference venue.

Getting to Maynooth

Maynooth is easily accessible by public transport, with excellent rail links (the train goes from Connolly Station in Dublin city centre) and bus links.

For more details on rail links see <https://www.maynoothuniversity.ie/location/commuting/rail>

For more details on bus links see <https://www.maynoothuniversity.ie/location/commuting/bus>

Note that Adult Leap cards can be purchased in many newsagents in Ireland (these are usually more useful than Visitor Leap cards).

For more on connections with Dublin Airport see

<https://www.maynoothuniversity.ie/location/commuting/air>

A note on parking: signs designating permit parking do not apply during the period of the conference as it is outside of term time.

For more information on parking policies see

<https://www.maynoothuniversity.ie/location/parking-traffic-management>